

Who is edwardthompson?

Edward Thompson founded the company in 1867 setting up a stationery shop in Sunderland using the winnings he made from a bet on the horses.

Today edwardthompson remains a family company and has evolved to become a top 100 UK printer, providing marketing and specialist print solutions to clients across many sectors.

We have also established ourselves as the leading supplier to the UK leisure and gaming market for the last 50 years
